JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

As stated on the record during the teleconference held earlier today:

- Plaintiff's July 8, 2022 motion to compel is GRANTED. Defendants shall, no later than July 28, 2022, cure the deficiencies identified in the letter. Any further failures to comply will likely result in sanctions.
- If the parties believe there is a need for a protective order, the parties shall, no later than July 21, 2022, submit a joint proposed protective order or, if the parties are unable to reach agreement, separate proposed protective orders. If the parties submit separate proposed protective orders, they shall also file a redline identifying the differences between the two proposals.

All other dates and deadlines remain in effect. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 48.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 19, 2022
